Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: One of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, introduced in 2002 by John Paul II, is Jesus' proclamation of the kingdom of God. It is a different mystery from most of the others—rather than commemorating one moment from the life of Jesus or Mary, it gives us the heart of his work, an on-going process throughout his public life. This gospel perhaps gives us the one moment that best represents this mystery: Jesus emerges from his desert pilgrimage and starts proclaiming. That this is a Mystery of Light is telling: light is emerging here, scattering darkness before it and illuminating what was once unclear. It is also a moment of light in Jesus' life as he emerges from the darkness of his desert temptation and into the light of public life and work.

To Experience: Jesus' public ministry starts from a moment of crisis. It is in response to John's arrest that Jesus begins his proclamation of the kingdom. For us, too, moments of crisis are often moments of clarity. They present us with an opportunity to take stock of our lives and our priorities and to reassess how we are spending our time and resources. They are a privileged moment for hearing God's call.

1. How do you feel called to proclaim God's kingdom in your current season of life?
2. What does your baptism mean to you and how do you try to live out your baptismal identity?
3. The psalm uses the image of "the way" to represent our journey of faith. Reflect on your own faith journey—where you have been, where you are going, and how God accompanies you as you go.

"For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart."
 Hebrews 4:12

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We return to the guidance about "Lectio Divina." The first step is reading. This type of reading is "listening with the heart" rather than an analysis.

The second step is "meditatio" or meditation. If one reads scripture with attention and an interior attitude of recollection, your focus will be drawn to a specific word or phrase or verse of scripture. This may not be the main point of the passage, and in fact, may even seem like an insignificant detail to the wider passage. However, every word of scripture can nourish the soul. The word to which your heart is drawn is the word that God wishes to use to speak to your heart.

In speaking about meditation, the monks would use words like "chewing," or "savoring." They liked the image of a cow chewing her cud and drawing all the nourishment from it that is available. We let the Word linger with us.

At this point we reflect over it. Meditation can in fact be active. We ask questions, such as "Imagine what it would feel like for Jesus to speak TO ME in that way?" Or, if we notice something unexpected or even unsettling in scripture, we can ponder, "Why would Jesus do that or say something in that way?" Ponder and reflect over the word.

Meditation is also noticing how the word echoes in our hearts and minds. Sometimes the Word of God helps us to recall a memory, triggers a thought or insight, or we have an emotional response to the word. These responses can be comforting and reassuring. They can also be uncomfortable. Either way, rest in how your mind and heart respond to the word. Let it take root. Let it take you deeper into your insight, memory, or feeling.

Part of meditation is considering how the words relate to your life today. Ask yourself, "Have I ever been in a similar situation?" Or, "How can I relate to this passage?"

Each word of scripture can be nourishing, if we give it the attention, focus, and time for the word to take root, and reveal itself to us.

There are times in my own prayer, when I return to a familiar passage of scripture, and it speaks to me again. It's as if I am hearing it for the first time. When we meditate on scripture through lectio divina, the scriptures do speak to us anew.

Blessings,
 Father Bill

Little Black Books

Walk day by day through the Passion narrative according to Luke this Lenten season with The Little Black Books for Lent as your guide. Books are available at the back of church. A freewill offering will be accepted to offset the cost.

The Word Among Us

The Word Among Us is a daily devotional used to guide and grow your prayer life and includes the daily readings. The next book begins on Ash Wednesday. A copy can be picked up at the back of church or the parish office. There is no charge.

Lent Prayer Partners

Again this year as part of our Lenten mission, we ask that you pray for each other. At Masses this weekend, families attending will be asked to take a notecard with the names of parishioners on them. Please pray throughout Lent for your brothers and sisters in Christ. The basket will contain names of parishioners from both parishes. Extra cards will be available at Masses the following weekend.

CRS Rice Bowls—Lent is Coming!

During this holy time, we are called to pause and pay closer attention to our relationship with God and our neighbors. Reflect on how the Lenten pillars of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving can guide your journey and how the Eucharist helps us to live in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world. Visit csrtricebowl.org to learn more and read this week's Story of Hope.

Walk to Mary—Saturday, May 4

The Walk to Mary has become a pilgrimage like no other in the world. We start with St. Joseph (at the National Shrine of St. Joseph) and walk to Mary (at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion) to get to Jesus. Our annual pilgrimage has impacted lives and filled hearts with many blessings from the Holy Family.

The 21 mile walk spiritually prepares us for our destination – America's only Church-approved Marian apparition site, where in 1859, the Blessed Mother appeared to Adele Brise on the site of the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion in Champion, Wisconsin.

Options: Walk 21 miles or begin at one of the designated "join in" locations

Pastoral Instruction on use of the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel in the Liturgy

Awake from your Slumber

One of the great tragedies of our day is our state of constant busyness. As individuals and families, we are in a never-ending whirlwind of activity. From the moment we wake up in the morning until we prepare for bed at night, we are constantly running from activity to activity. Only to start again the next day. In our efforts to keep up with this race, we often lose sight of God – turning our eyes away from He who is our strength and our peace.

While we may be tempted to believe that constant busyness is harmless, and even a normal part of life, we must recognize the effects it is having on our spiritual life – many of us are living in a state of spiritual slumber. In our present day, the Enemy is using our constant state of preoccupation to distract us from the war he is waging against our souls and the souls of those we love. As we carry on in the hustle and bustle of life, the enemy is attacking us as he works to incite chaos through a culture of confusion, doubt, and fear.

When we lose sight of God and start to rely on our own abilities and talents, the enemy, Satan, uses the opportunity to tempt us to move further from God and toward sin. Satan is the father of lies. He seeks to kill and destroy all that is good. He lures us with false promises and hopes that never materialize. When we follow him into sin, we are only left with loneliness, alienation and hopelessness. The fruits of sin are all too evident in our world today. Poverty, racism, violence, wars, genocide and so many other social ills are becoming fixtures in our daily lives, locally and worldwide.

As pastors, parents and all baptized Catholics, we have a responsibility to heed St. Paul's call to awake from our slumber (Romans 13: 11) and put on the armor of God (Ephesians 6:12) to stand firm in our faith against the attacks of the evil one who is intent on destroying the Christian faith.

History of the St. Michael the Archangel Prayer

Around the year 1886, Pope Leo XIII had a vision of the spiritual warfare taking place in the time in which he lived. As he was concluding the celebration of the Mass, he was struck by fear at a vision of the demonic attacks to be carried out against God's people. The encounter had such an impact on the Holy Father that he was moved immediately to pen the words to the prayer so many of us have come to love – the St. Michael the Archangel Prayer. The prayer to St. Michael the Archangel is a powerful plea for the Archangel's intercession. As we read in Scripture, we seek the aid of the one who was chosen by God as protector of the Church and victorious warrior against the evil one.

Be Shielded in Battle – Pray to St. Michael the Archangel

We are on the battlefield facing attacks that seek to destroy us by robbing our children of their innocence, provoking doubt in our young people, inciting fear in the hearts of adults, stirring division in Christian marriages and causing division in the Church. This time of spiritual warfare demands that we take our stand against the evil one by invoking the intercession of St. Michael the Archangel.

Be not afraid, however! God never leaves His children defenseless – God sent His Son into the world to save us. He has also appointed angels in heaven to fight for us! We are not alone in this struggle against the evil one. The Lord Jesus, and His army of angels – particularly his chief warrior St. Michael the Archangel – go before us in battle.

As the family of God and in your own families, let us turn to St. Michael the Archangel in prayer. In asking for this powerful saint's intercession, we place our families and congregations under his protection as we trust in the victory to come through the saving power of God. We seek in prayer the protection of all marriages and families which are under the attack of the enemy. We also intercede for the universal Church, the Pope and the Bishops, and for our own Bishop, priests and deacons in the Diocese of Green Bay.

St. Michael the Archangel, Pray for us!

How this is to be implemented - Praying the St. Michael Prayer at the conclusion of the Mass

We take all our prayers, intercessions and needs and trustingly place them in our loving Father's care. The attacks of the powers of darkness against the Pope, bishops and priests, the Church herself, parishes, marriages and families (the domestic church), warrant the call for all the spiritual weapons necessary for protection against the evil forces threatening the very fiber of our society. In her wisdom, the Church has always looked to the Saints to intercede for us with the Father. The need for the protection and intercession of St. Michael is greater now than in any other time in modern history.

Therefore, as Successor of the Apostles and Bishop of Green Bay, I direct that, beginning with the weekend of the First Sunday of Lent, February 17-18, in every parish, mission, chapel, campus ministry, and religious institution, that the St. Michael prayer be prayed publicly after Mass (after the final dismissal) and before the closing hymn. The prayer is to be prayed with only a simple invitation to join in praying the Prayer of St. Michael for protection. I further direct that in parishes where the Prayer is currently prayed at other times during Mass, that, as a sign of a unity, the Prayer to St. Michael is prayed after Mass as directed above. I envision this to be prayed perpetually within the Diocese of Green Bay.

Prayer cards, in both English and Spanish, will be distributed to parishes to be placed in the pew for the use in praying the prayer.

Pastors are encouraged to use this Pastoral Instruction along with Catechetical materials which will be provided to assist in the catechesis of the faithful.

St. Frances Cabrini

Arriving in New York City in 1889, Italian immigrant Francesca Cabrini is greeted by disease, crime and impoverished children. She soon sets off on a daring mission to convince the mayor to secure housing and health care for society's most vulnerable. With broken English and poor health, Cabrini uses her entrepreneurial mind to build an empire of hope unlike anything the world has ever seen.

Believe In and Share the Gospel

*"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the Gospel of God:
'This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the Gospel.'"
– Mark 1:14-15*

"Believe in the Gospel!" As we enter the first Sunday of Lent, this is a great reminder of Jesus's call for us. As disciples, we are to deepen our relationship with Jesus and share Him with all we meet. This is what Living the Eucharist and Sharing the Gifts is all about. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps us spread the message across the Diocese, especially in our Catholic schools and faith formation programs.

Catholic schools give our children the chance to have a top-notch education where Jesus is at the center. By sharing Jesus with them in Catholic schools, our children can begin a lifelong friendship with Jesus. We also see this friendship occurring within our faith formation programs as children across northeastern Wisconsin learn the teachings of the Church and bring Jesus into their hearts. Sharing the Good News with our young people answers Jesus' call for us to strengthen our faith. Our parish has been blessed by diocesan ministries that have supported our faith formation leaders and impacted our young people.

Please share your gifts to the 2024 Bishop's Appeal to further these essential diocesan ministries. Your gift helps equip faith formation leaders to bring Jesus to the youngest members of our parish. It is your generosity that influences the future of our Church, so please give today.

Contact our parish office, use the pledge card you received at home, or visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundation.com/give to make your gift.

Thank you for your gift to the Bishop's Appeal and for your support of Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes.

*Please prayerfully consider a gift from the heart to the
Bishop's Appeal 2024*

Living the Eucharist and Sharing the Gifts through Adult Faith Formation

Adult faith formation programs help parish leaders bring adults closer to Christ. Thanks to the Bishop's Appeal, adult faith formation provides resources, guest speakers, and curricula to help parishes advance the mission, form adults through Christ, and inspire disciples.

This Week on FORMED ...

Week One | Restore: Lent with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT

In the Week One video for the Restore Lent series, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, reflects on the theme of the week—the desert. She explains that Jesus is inviting you to move beyond your comfort zone and into the deepest places of your heart with him. It is Jesus who helps you root out the sin, sickness, and self-hatred in your life. Sr. Miriam assures us that we can look to him for comfort, love, and healing.

Feb 9 - $20	Emma Neils, Kiel	#1018
Feb 10 - $20	Jason Riesterer, Newton	#1145

This week students participated in the celebration of the Mass for Ash Wednesday. Several students, of all ages, served in ministry roles.

Serving in a ministry is a wonderful way for students (and adults) to learn about and practice their faith.

Contact Father Bill, Deacon Gary, or the parish office to learn more about ministry.

Legacy Gifts to Holy Trinity Parish

Current projects for donation consideration:

- Replace candelabras
- Vestments (priest, altar servers)

We impact thousands of lives by
Living the Eucharist and Sharing the Gifts

Please give generously to
Bishop's Appeal 2024

	Goal	Pledged	Percentage Met
St. Gregory:	$23,116	$2,395	10%
Holy Trinity:	$15,879	$3,255	20%

Thank you for your support!
Be sure to label your gift with the name of your parish!
