Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: John the Baptist gets so much of our Advent airtime—but why do we have him at all? He is not the main event; he is very clear about this from the beginning. What he offers is incomplete revelation, a promise yet to be fulfilled, a lesser baptism than the one who is to come. Why does God work in this way? Why not send us Christ directly and immediately and get right down to the work of salvation? We may not ever know why, but we can take a cue from John the Baptist in accepting the partial nature of what we see of God's work. John knows his place and accepts it in humility. He embodies the prayer by Bishop Ken Untener that reminds us: "We are ... ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own." Like John, we each play some small but irreplaceable role in revealing and announcing Christ. The partial nature of this work can be frustrating, but God's ways are not our ways, and God's timing cannot be rushed.

To Experience: John the Baptist is at first identified by what he is not—he is not the light, not Elijah. The laity of the church is often described in similar ways; laypeople are not ordained, not priests, cannot preside or preach at Eucharist. But John's interlocutors push for positive identification, and perhaps we should too. The laity is not just what it is not; it has a special call to bring the sacred in touch with the more mundane occupations of workplaces and friendships and childrearing. Every place where there is a layperson is a place the church is present.

1. John the Baptist is not the Christ but plays a unique role in revealing and reflecting him to the world. How do you reveal and reflect Christ in the world?
2. John shows true humility, knowing he is not Christ but not shying away from the role of leadership to which he has been called. What can you learn from his self-knowledge?

"The dawn from on high shall break upon us and shine on those who dwell in darkness and guide our feet in the way of peace."
 Luke 1:78-79

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In today's Gospel, we hear the testimony of John the Baptist. That he came to testify to the light.

His days were days of confusion and darkness. There were wars and rumors of war. His nation was quickly dividing into various factions. Many people were feeling oppressed. The hopes, dreams, and aspirations of the "small guy" were getting lost in the midst of all this confusion. Most people did not know what to believe or who to trust.

Does any of this sound familiar?

But in the midst of this darkness, John the Baptist testified to the light. That light is the Light of Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. In Christ's preaching and ministry, people heard the Good News that they were first of all called to be sons and daughters of God the Most High. The voice of Christ was clear in calling people to goodness and holiness. They were challenged with these words, "If anyone would like to be my disciple, he must take up his cross and follow me." The challenge of the Cross does call us to sacrifice, but in giving our lives to a mission that is larger than ourselves, we find meaning and purpose.

Finally, in his final sacrifice on Calvary, Christ showed our value, when he offered his Body and his Blood to redeem us from sin and death. Sin and death are the deepest darkness that we experience, and in the Resurrection of Christ, we see that his Light drives out the dark.

Our days are not much different from the days of John the Baptist. People in his day found meaning, purpose, and hope when they turned their hearts and minds towards Christ, who is the true light of the world. So in our day, Christ can and will drive out the darkness. It is our mission as Christians in these confusing times to follow the model laid out for us by John the Baptist. Just as he testified to the light, so we too should testify to the light.

Blessings,
 Father Bill

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

The song comes from the O Antiphons that are prayed by the whole Church during the seven days preceding Christmas Eve. These O Antiphons start on December 17th with O Wisdom and end on December 23rd with O Emmanuel.

No one knows the exact origin of the O Antiphons, but Christians have been singing them since at least the fifth century. You might recognize some of the words, because the O Antiphons are the basis of the popular hymn O Come, O Come Emmanuel.

Each antiphon begins with a title of Christ taken from the Old Testament. Do a little detective work to figure out what they mean, using the Scripture references as clues.

December 17

O come, Thou Wisdom, from on high,
Who ord'rest all things mightily;
To us the path of knowledge show,
And teach us in her ways to go. (Refrain)

December 18

O come, O come, Thou Lord of might,
Who to thy tribes of Sinai's height
In ancient times didst give the law
In cloud and majesty and awe. (Refrain)

December 19

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse's stem,
From ev'ry foe deliver them
That trust thy mighty pow'r to save,
And give them vict'ry o'er the grave. (Refrain)

December 20

O come, Thou Key of David, come
And open wide our heav'nly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high,
And close the path to misery. (Refrain)

December 21

O come, Thou Dayspring from on high,
And cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadow put to flight. (Refrain)

December 22

O come, Desire of nations, bind
In one the hearts of all humankind;
Bid thou our sad divisions cease,
And be thyself our Prince of Peace. (Refrain)

December 23

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear. (Refrain)

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.
