Parish News

Thanksgiving Day Mass will be offered 9am Thursday, November 23 at St. Gregory.

Parish Offices will be closed Thursday, November 23 and Friday, November 24.

Two of SG High School's Alumni will be posthumously honored on Sunday, November 12 at the parish center following the 10am Mass. Tom Weiss, Class of 1967, and John Knorr from the Class of 1965 both died while serving in Vietnam. Each will be honored with a plaque to be displayed in the halls they once walked. Members of the Weiss and Knorr families will be present. The plaques are provided by the Sheboygan Elks Lodge.

Thank You for Your Kindness and Generosity! Approximately 70 Boxes of Joy and 20 Boxes of Love were donated for our outreach mission. Thank you for bringing great joy to children who have so little and to our parishioners in nursing homes. In addition, the monetary gifts will be a great help to cover the shipping of the children's boxes. May God bless each of you!

Thirteen entries competed in the Chili Cookoff on October 28. The first place winner was Marion Lenz and second place went to Sullivan Koenig. Congratulations, Marion and Sullivan! Thank you to everyone who entered a chili recipe and to all the taste-testers who cast the votes and enjoyed a delicious lunch!

Christian Women Christmas Party is Dec. 5. Social at 4:30pm, dinner at 5pm. Cost is $8, gift exchange is optional. Grocery items will be collected for St. Gregory's Food Pantry. All women are invited and friends.

Christian Women 2024 Calendar Update There are still calendars that have not been picked up yet. If you can deliver some, that would be great. There are extras if you need more. Thank You!

Perch Fry meeting Wednesday, November 15 at 6:30pm. All are welcome to attend meeting. Now is your time to give input, 4-5 meetings, small duties prior to and week of Perch Fry.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The end of the liturgical year always presents us with Scripture passages that speak of the end times. This theme will continue into Advent's repetitive admonition to stay awake and ready for the ultimate coming of Christ. The Bible's images of this time are sometimes troubling; here, we have a locked door and a Bridegroom who refuses to recognize those who came unprepared for the wedding feast—hardly a reassuring image of Christ's boundless mercy. But this is not a gospel about the mechanics of our preparation; when put into dialogue with the other readings for today, it becomes a gospel about our longing to be with Jesus. Those whose hearts desire him will find ways to prepare their hearts. The specifics of that preparation will look different for all of us, but love and longing are at their core.

To Experience: These eschatological November readings are fitting for the month Catholics dedicate to remembrance of the dead. Even as we grieve our losses, this week offers us a reminder to live in hope, not just for ourselves but for all our departed loved ones.

1. Do you identify more with the wise or foolish virgins in the gospel?
2. How do you think you, particularly, are called to prepare your heart for Christ's coming?
3. Re-read the first reading, remembering that "wisdom of God" is one of Christ's ancient titles. How does this reading work for you as an image of Christ? How does it compare with the gospel?

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

"For I trust, in whatever manner I die, that I shall not be deprived of the mercy of my God."
St. Gertrude

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We continue our review of the funeral practices and traditions of Catholics.

When a Catholic dies, the Church encourages the celebration of a funeral Mass. There are two primary reasons to offer a funeral Mass: to give praise and thanks to God for Christ's victory over sin and death, and to commend the deceased to God's tender mercy and compassion.

The funeral Mass begins with the reception of the body. In receiving the body of the deceased with honor, the Christian community acknowledges the deceased as one of their own, as one who was welcomed in baptism and who held a place in the assembly. The body is sprinkled with Holy Water, covered with a white funeral pall, and brought close to the Easter Candle. The Church uses these three symbols to intentionally recall the sacrament of Baptism.

The Holy Water recalls the waters of baptism. In the waters of baptism, the seed of eternal life was planted in the soul of the deceased, and at the funeral, we pray that the deceased will experience the fullness of eternal life in the heavenly banquet.

The white funeral pall recalls the white baptismal gown. At baptism the baptismal garment is blessed with these words, "See in this white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity. With family and friends to help you by word and example, bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven." The white funeral pall also represents the white garment worn by the elders in heaven (see Revelation 4:4).

The Easter Candle is a symbol with numerous meanings. At the Easter Vigil, it is carried as the only light into the darkened church. This represents the column of fire that guided the Israelites in the desert as they journeyed to the Promised Land (see Exodus 13:21). Christ is the light of the world (see John 8:12). So the Easter Candle represents the Light of Christ that leads the deceased from the darkness of death to the light of the Promised Land of the heavenly kingdom.

The Easter Candle also recalls the baptismal candle. At baptism, the candle is lit from the Easter Candle and handed to the newly baptized with these words, "This light is entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly... when the Lord comes, may he (she) go out to meet the Lord with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom." In this sense, the Easter Candle represents the gift of faith that the deceased received at Baptism. "You are the light of the world... let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works, and give glory to your Father who is in heaven" (see Matthew 5:14-16).

Blessings,
Father Bill

Veterans Day Prayer

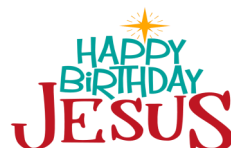

Lord God, we thank you for the gift of veterans and their humble service to you. Because they served our country, as your Son humbly served you, bless them and keep them close to your heart, especially those with disabilities, and those who endure any kind of suffering. We also ask that you help those who are transitioning back into civilian life, particularly those who struggle to find a job upon returning home. Provide mental and spiritual strength they need to best serve you in the way they live their lives. Please bestow grace on their families and watch over them and their fallen friends. Give them peace, protection, and continue to be with them and their loved ones. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.

Sacrament Celebration

Pizza & Movie Night

Saturday, November 18

5:30pm Pizza, 6pm Movie
Holy Trinity Parish Hall

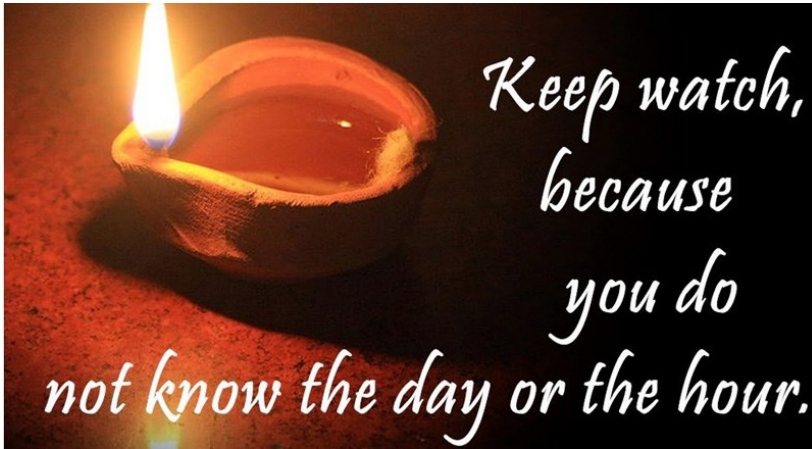

Marriage takes work. Marriages can slowly fall apart as a result of small bad choices. Divorce might seem like the solution but it ultimately scars both parties. This movie shows what Biblical love looks like. We are shown struggles to emulate the selfless love and service of Jesus by loving and serving his or her spouse, as Jesus would.

For the little ones, a children's movie will be playing in a separate room.

COST: FREE family event.

Surviving the Holidays

Surviving the Holidays is a single-session, 2 hr event to help people who have lost a loved one to death and would like some help in navigating the holidays without their loved one. We will: learn how to deal our emotions; tips for surviving social events; what to do with holiday traditions; how to find hope for the future. There is a 40 minute video by counselors and mental health experts with interviews of people who have experienced the loss of a loved one. We'll take some time to discuss the video, though sharing is not required. Each attendee will be given a guide book to take home and implement. Surviving the Holidays will meet Saturday, December 2 from 9-11am at Immanuel Lutheran Church. If you need further information, have any questions or to register please contact Larry Verlinden at 920-323-2297 or verlinden@comcast.net. You can also get more information and register on the GriefShare website griefshare.org. Please register by November 22 so we can make sure we have enough guide books. There will be a charge of $7 to cover the cost of the guide book. Please consider joining us!

Indoor Walking Available SG Parish Center is open for walking. Hours are Mon-Thurs 8am-noon and Mon-Wed 12:30pm-4pm (please call in advance for the afternoon to guarantee access).
