St. Gregory—Tuesday, October 17 Annual Meeting

HT & SG Eucharistic Minister Training An email has been sent regarding a Liturgical Ministry Training for current parish ministers in the areas of Eucharistic Ministers. The training on November 9, led by diocesan staff, is at St. Francis of Assisi, Manitowoc, Grand Ave Site, and also open to those who wish to begin volunteering in the ministry. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are to be commissioned for this ministry by the Bishop. This commissioning is preceded by proper and sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence. Contact the office if you are in need of the registration link or need assistance to register.

SG Fall Feast Raffle Tickets Extra raffle tickets are now available at the back of church, in addition to the parish office. Pick up additional tickets to sell to family, friends, co-workers, and everyone you meet.

Thank You to the donors who made it possible to have the main chalice at SG regilded! It is absolutely beautiful! The chalice is engraved "In Memory of Sgt. John Knorr by Janet Broeckert May 5, 1968". Sgt. Knorr paid the ultimate sacrifice while serving in Vietnam. Knorr was a graduate with the St. Gregory High School Class of 1965 and Broeckert was a 1964 graduate.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This Sunday, we also begin to see the eschatological themes that will be with us through the end of the church year. They begin on a hopeful note, one in which it is clear that God want to provide for our needs and have us partake in all that God can offer. In this parable, we see the end game of the lavish generosity the last few weeks' parables have been hinting at. This is more than absurdly recurrent forgiveness and illogical wages. This is a feast, a party. For celebration is the appropriate when we realize who God is, one whose entire way of being is extravagant, lavish with generosity, and whose whole all-powerful self is constantly spilling forth in self-gift. No one is excluded from this invitation unless they exclude themselves. God's loving abundance is for all.

To Experience: Many of us hesitate to ask God for too much; we strive to pray for the "right" things so that we will not be too disappointed if our desires aren't met. Bug God already knows all our needs and all our desires and all our thoughts; bringing them to prayer is a way of growing our knowledge of God, not God's knowledge of us. Our neediness before God is an unchangeable and indisputable fact; our acknowledgement of it is simply a way to grow in humility.

1. How does God invite you to the feast? Where do you hear the call to share in the abundant life and joy that God promises?
2. What needs do you have that often go unseen? How do you wish God would provide for these?
3. In this parable, "bad and good alike" rub shoulders at the same celebration. Who in the church is a struggle for you to be in communion with? How might God be inviting you to greater love for them?

Hear to Serve

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER and of THE SON and of THE HOLY SPIRIT...

How many times have we said these words as we made the Sign of the Cross over ourselves? But have we ever thought about what we were doing and saying? Have we ever wondered when this ancient prayer came into practice and what it really means?

This ancient prayer that we practice (Yes, I said prayer) is thought to have been given to us back in apostolic times. While no direct evidence supports this, St. Basil, who lived in the 300's, tells us that it was the Apostles that taught us to mark ourselves with the Sign of the Cross for those who put their hope in the Lord.

Through the ages, some people treated the Sign of the Cross as a magic amulet, something with magical powers to protect them. It was noted by a bishop that some people would even make the Sign of the Cross on their way to commit a crime. During the Reformation, Martin Luther did not abandon the Sign of the Cross but the Protestant church did away with it because they felt people were treating it exactly as a superstition to bring good luck and protection. It makes you think about those basketball players on the free throw line, doesn't it?

For Catholics today, the Sign of the Cross is considered a prayer, but it is also a sacramental. A sacrament does what it says. For example, in Baptism we are cleansed of Original Sin and given Divine Grace. A sacramental, however, prepares us to receive Divine Graces. This is why at the beginning of Baptism the parents and godparents are asked to trace the Sign of the Cross on the baby's forehead. You are preparing your child to receive God's Graces.

Parents, by the graces given to you through the Sacrament of Marriage, it is your responsibility to evangelize your children in the faith. You have the authority to not just ask for, but to give God's blessing upon your children. You should bless them every night and before they leave for school. All you have to do is trace the Sign of the Cross on their foreheads. Use holy water if you have it and use some simple words, "May God Bless You in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." We too should bless ourselves with the sign of the cross before we leave our homes to face the world.

The sign of the cross has power over the devil. Yes, making the sign of the cross helps us in our battle with the devil and all the evil spirits who prowl the world for the ruin of souls. It was by Christ's death and resurrection that He conquered sin and death for us. We now can have eternal life if we choose. The devil hates this. By making the Sign of the Cross, we are uniting ourselves with Christ on His Cross; we are opening ourselves up to God's graces to help us in every spiritual battle. By making the Sign of the Cross, we are reminding ourselves and telling the whole world that we are united with Christ in His Baptism, in His death, and in His Resurrection.

The next time you make the Sign of the Cross, don't rush it. Do it willfully, prayerfully, and do it big. Open yourselves up to all of the wonderful graces God wants to give you.
