HT & SG Eucharistic Minister Training An email has been sent regarding a Liturgical Ministry Training for current parish ministers in the areas of Eucharistic Ministers. The training on November 9, led by diocesan staff, is at St. Francis of Assisi, Manitowoc, Grand Ave Site, and also open to those who wish to begin volunteering in the ministry. The training is 1 1/2 hours in length. Unlike other lay liturgical ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are to be commissioned for this ministry by the Bishop. This commissioning is preceded by proper and sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence. Contact the office if you are in need of the registration link or need assistance to register.

SG Fall Feast Raffle Tickets Extra raffle tickets are now available at the back of church, in addition to the parish office. Pick up additional tickets to so sell to family, friends, co-workers, and everyone you meet.

SG & HT Shoeboxes Needed Do you have shoeboxes with covers that you are willing share? We are searching for boxes with covers for an upcoming outreach activity. Boxes may be brought to either parish office by Monday, October 8. Thank you!

Thank You to the parishioners that donated apples and the ladies that helped to make 5 1/2 ice cream pails of applesauce. We will need 20 more ice cream pails for the perch fry.

Christian Women 2024 Calendars will be ready to pick up at the back of church. We need the help of all our parish members to make it a success again this year. Thank You!

Holy Trinity Parishioner Orlan Ramaker passed away September 21. A funeral Mass was celebrated earlier this week at Holy Trinity with burial in the parish cemetery. Our condolences to his family and friends.

"The Rosary is the 'weapon' for these times."
 St. Padre Pio

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On October 7 each year, Holy Mother Church celebrates one of the great military victories of Christian history, which is the victory of the Christian League over the Ottoman navy in 1571. Despite being vastly outnumbered, the Catholic forces, under the leadership of Don Juan of Austria, both annihilated the Ottoman navy and liberated the tens-of-thousands of kidnapped Christians who were enslaved to row their ships. The victory was so stunning and unexpected, that even Don Juan considered it to be a miracle. As the ships deployed to engage the Ottomans in battle, Pope St. Pius the Fifth implored Catholics throughout Europe to pray the Rosary. In Thanksgiving for this victory, the same Pope instituted the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7. In addition, the entire month of October is dedicated to the Rosary.

The Rosary is a powerful weapon.

The Rosary is a scripture-based prayer. The heart of the Rosary is meditating upon the mysteries of Christ's life. Each mystery begins with the Our Father, and continues with ten Hail Marys. The repetition of the prayers helps to calm the heart and mind, and also to draw the person praying into reflecting on the mystery itself.

Saints throughout history have found the Rosary to be a powerful prayer. It is a powerful way of restoring order to your spiritual life. In fact, St. Francis de Sales teaches that "the Rosary is the greatest method of prayer." It is also a powerful tool for growing in holiness and rooting out sin. One who faithfully and devotedly prays the Rosary will find that habits of sin are soon overcome.

The Rosary precedes every Mass celebrated at Holy Trinity and St. Gregory. If it's been a while since you've prayed the Rosary or if you have never learned how to pray it, come to Mass early and learn. I usually pray the Rosary by taking a walk about parish grounds. I offer it as a thanksgiving for the people who come to Mass, the volunteers that keep the parish going, and as a supplication that more people come to Mass.

"Say the Holy Rosary!
 Blessed be that monotony of Hail Marys which purifies the monotony of your sins!"
 St. Josemaria Escriva

Blessings,
 Fr. Bill

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This week's gospel finds us in another parable and another vineyard. We're still talking about the exceeding generosity of God and how it surpasses all our hopes and imaginings. Here, it is about second chances, and it is good news for all of us. Life brings countless opportunities to fail to do right, and all of us fail sometimes. But it is never too late to change course, and we are never too far gone to come back. God's love reaches far beyond what we expect; in fact, our limited imaginations often cause us to exclude daughters and sons with whom God is well pleased. God's love is not limited to those who appear to be living moral and religious lives; it most fully embraces those on the margins of what we and our too-small imaginations have deemed acceptable.

To Experience: In the gospel, neither brother acts with complete honesty or integrity; it would be nice if there were a son who obeyed his father in both word and deed. Perhaps this is pointing to the fact that none of us is perfect, that all of us are in need of God's generous mercy. We don't always think of ourselves as being needy before God; we would like to believe we have merited the good things God gives us. But this gospel challenges us to remember to receive them all as gifts given freely.

1. Do you identify more with the first or second son in Jesus' parable? Do you feel frustration or relief at this gospel passage?
2. Do you identify more with the chief priests and elders that Jesus addresses or the tax collectors and prostitutes whose place in the kingdom he affirms? Why do you think that is?
3. In what ways do you feel you succeed in answering the second reading's call to look out for the interests of others? In what ways could you improve?
