TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Parish News

All Saints Day, Saturday, November 1, is not a holy day of obligation this year. However, an All Saints Day Mass will still be celebrated 8am on Saturday at Holy Trinity.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) will be at all weekend Masses November 1 & 2.

Masses of Remembrance for Pregnancy and Infant Loss will be next weekend, October 25 & 26. Contact the office if you would like a candle lit in honor of the memory of the life and loss of a pre-born child.

HT & SG Eucharistic Ministers Meeting A meeting for all Eucharistic Ministers, Homebound Ministers, and Sacristans has been scheduled for Saturday, November 8, 5:15pm – 6pm at SG.

Ministry Schedule: The November and December Ministry Schedules have been emailed. Copies are available at the back of church.

Cemetery Clean Up Reminder The end of the growing season is here. Please take time to remove any flowers or personal items from your loved ones' grave site. This will ensure our cemetery committee will not dispose of any items you may want to keep. Thank you for taking care of this in a timely manner.

Do You Have Extra Flower Vases? Bring them to St. Gregory Parish Office during regular office hours. All vases collected will be repurposed or reused.

Holy Trinity Perch Fry is not that far off. Apple season is here and we will need your delicious applesauce again this year. Thank you.

Holy Trinity Buildings & Grounds Committee will begin meeting monthly on the second Monday of the month. Next meeting is November 10, 6pm. Public input is welcomed. Items can be brought to these meetings or given to a committee member: Dennis Albright, Dennis Graf, or Bob Salm.

Do you have Aluminum Cans and Old Batteries? Holy Trinity will be taking aluminum cans and car, tractor, ATV, motorcycle batteries to be recycled soon. Cans and batteries can be dropped off by the Holy Trinity Cemetery Shed or call the parish office to make arrangements to have them picked up.

Christian Women calendars will be ready for pick up, Sun. Oct. 19. Help us make it another successful year! $20,000 will be going toward the septic system and the profit from the 2026 calendars will be put toward redoing the blacktop. Thank You.

Book Drive: Manitowoc County Jail is looking for gently used books for inmates. Any genre, no hardcovers and no staples in the books. Between October 19th and November 9th, drop off your books at the donation bins at either church.

Correction: The Thursday Mass at Holy Trinity is at 6pm, not 8am as printed on the bulletin cover.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This parable can be confusing, likening God to a cranky judge who responds only to being pestered. We know that this is not how God works. God does not answer prayer to get us off God's back. God is all goodness and generosity, wanting to sustain and protect us. God often provides for our needs without us praying at all. But God still encourages us to pray. God does not need our prayers – does not need us at all – but God longs for relationship with us and has chosen in infinite wisdom to include our prayers as part of the exchange of this relationship. It can be frustrating to pray when we do not see our prayers answered (at least not in the ways we would like), but our prayers still draw us closer to God and help us slowly learn to see the world as God does.

To Experience: These readings remind us that prayer ought to be a discipline – that is, a regular practice that we sustain even when we don't particularly feel like it. Discipline is related to discipleship; the root word of both has to do with instruction and knowledge. It is through commitment to such practices that we learn and grow. That is not to say we need to be slavishly committed to one way of praying – these prayer disciplines can and should change throughout our lives.

1. What is your prayer life like in this season of your faith journey? What do you wish it would look like?
2. What are some prayer practices that have been fruitful at different stages of your life? How do you know when it is time to try a new one?
3. How have you leaned on God for support or guidance? How could you grow in understanding yourself as dependent on God?

Pray Without Losing Heart

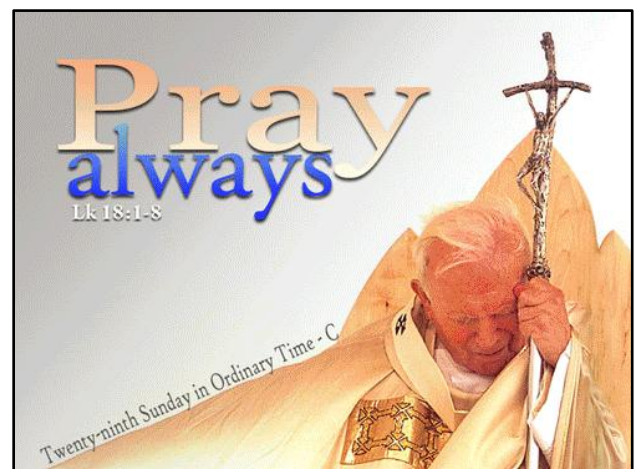

What does God constantly expect from us? First of all, He wants us to walk in reverence before Him. We are called to live according to the Commandments He has given. To “fear the Lord” does not mean to be afraid of Him – it means to recognize His holiness and to live wisely under His guidance. “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.” Every day and every moment, we must make an effort to live with this awareness – setting aside time to praise and thank God, and especially to keep holy the Lord's Day. Sunday must be a day set apart for Him, a day when we set aside other distractions and make our visit to church our first and most important act.

Secondly, God expects us to respect our fellow human beings and to uphold humanity. The Ten Commandments teach us this clearly: love for God and love for neighbor cannot be separated. It is through our care, compassion, and justice toward others that our faith in God becomes visible and shared.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a striking parable – a story of a widow who never gave up asking an unjust judge for justice. She kept coming to him again and again, even though he “neither feared God nor respected any person.” Jesus uses this image not to compare God with the judge but to show the difference between them. The judge had no compassion, yet he eventually responded because of the widow's persistence. How much more, then, will our loving God – who is rich in mercy – listen to those who call upon Him day and night!

This passage invites us to pray constantly, without losing heart. Persistent prayer is not about forcing God's hand – it is about deepening our trust in Him. Every prayer, every moment of silence before God, every act of faithfulness shapes our heart to receive His will. Sometimes, God's answer does not come immediately, not because He does not care, but because He knows the right time to act.

God Bless,
 Father Josuva

Second Collection: World Mission Sunday This Weekend

This year's theme – "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples" – is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. Your offering provides hope where despair too often dominates – through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic Schools. Use the envelope enclosed in last week's bulletin or from the back of church to select where your gift should be used: Propagation of the Faith, Latin America, or Eastern Europe.

October: Pregnancy & Infant Loss Awareness Month

Our new St. Gianna Garden in the SG Cemetery, a place of rest for the earthly remains of pre-born children, will be dedicated on Sunday, October 26 following a Mass of Remembrance for Pregnancy and Infant Loss.

Please contact either of the parish offices by October 22 if you would like a votive lit in honor of the memory of the life and loss of a pre-born child.

Our hearts go out to all those who have experienced pregnancy or infant loss. It is truly a unique grief. Parents are faced with the devastating loss of a child they never got to meet and whom they deeply loved as they nurtured their pre-born life and watched them grow. Complicating this is the incorrect belief that the woman held in her womb a potential life instead of the truth that this was a life with potential. We know that all human life is sacred because it has been willed into existence by our heavenly creator. We humans have a dignity unlike any other thing on earth because our very life was infused with a divine purpose, union with God. The fact that these preborn children first opened their eyes to see the face of Jesus in heaven is astounding. Both this joy and our great sorrow at not sharing life here on earth with them are a part of grief.

Dear friends, you are not alone. Our Lord has provided us with His holy mother Mary who understands the loss of a child. As the Virgin of Guadalupe, she is patroness of the unborn.

Please join us before the Mass of Remembrance for Pregnancy and Infant Loss at both parishes on the weekend of October 25 & 26 as we pray together the holy rosary. It will be followed by a special Litany of Saints who are patrons of the unborn, expectant mothers, miscarriages, stillbirth, women in childbirth, those dealing with infertility or child loss. Let us pray for the intercession of all these holy men and women saints.

May the God of all Mercies and Father of all Consolation bless us!
